

LIVERY COMMITTEE

Royal Mews
~ . ~

Your Livery Committee has been able to secure a private viewing of the Royal Mews on the Evening of the 1st of July

Major Simon-Robinson, the Queen's Equerry has kindly agreed to this exclusive event for 40 Coachmakers and their guests.

Private tours of this magnificent Royal facility are few and far between so this is a rare opportunity to see this historical working Mews in all its glory.

Guests will see the indoor school and the carriages, both horse drawn and motorised.

It will make for a very pleasant early evening event, starting at 6.00pm and lasting about two hours maximum.

Champagne and light refreshments will be provided.

Tickets will be £25 per person and places will be allocated on first come, first serve basis. Make sure you order today to avoid disappointment.

Please send your cheques and application to:
Ian Smith, 4 Wigwell Gardens, Spring Lane, Great Horwood MK17 0QX
